

2024 Summer Law Student (Family Law)

Burrison Hudani Doris LLP (BHD), a family law firm located in downtown Toronto, is seeking applications from second-year law students for a paid summer student position, starting in May 2024. The exact start date will be discussed and agreed upon with the successful candidate.

BHD welcomes applications from well-rounded individuals who have a demonstrated interest in the practice of family law and strong research, writing and oral communication skills. Given the firm's focus on family law, only students who will have completed the Family Law course before the start date will be considered for this position.

The selected summer student will gain valuable, hands-on experience in all areas of family law practice while working closely with the lawyers at the firm. Past summer and articling students have assisted with legal research and drafting for conferences, trials, appeals, mediations and arbitrations on a wide range of parenting and financial issues. There will be opportunities to shadow and learn from the firm's lawyers during virtual/in-person court appearances, mediations, negotiation/settlement meetings and client meetings. More information regarding BHD and our team of lawyers can be found on the firm website: <https://www.bhdllp.com/>

Interested applicants should send their materials via email to Carina Chan (carina@bhdllp.com) no later than Monday, September 25, 2023 at 5:00 p.m. EST. A cover letter and resume, together with unofficial law school transcripts, 2-3 reference letters or a list of 2-3 referees, and a writing sample, are required.

We thank all applicants for their interest but will only be contacting those who are selected for an interview. We conduct independent interviews at our firm and do not participate in the on-campus interview process. Interview offers will be extended on October 27, 2023. All interviews will be held between November 6 and 8, 2023, in accordance with the second-year summer student recruitment rules set by the Law Society of Ontario.